One day, the demoness Surpanakha has an encounter with them. She is attracted to Rama at an instant. Surpanakha transforms herself into a lovely maiden and tries to woo him.

3. Rama professes his love for Sita

The Description:

Rama tells her that he is married and therefore he cannot marry her. Enraged Surpanakha threatens to kill and eat Sita so that Rama would then be free to marry her.

4. Lakshmana cuts off Surpanakha's nose and ears

The Description:

As Surpanakha charges towards Sita, in a swift move, Lakshmana cuts off her nose and ears with his sword. She cries and flees the scene.

5. Dushana, Khara and an army of 14,000 demons

The Description:

Surpanakha returns with her brothers Dushana and Khara and an army of 14,000 demons to avenge her disgrace. Rama kills all the 14,000 demons whilst Lakshmana watches over Sita.

6. Surpanakha's wail to Raavana

The Description:

Surpanakha wails to her brother Ravana and she accuses Rama and Lakshmana for ill-treating her, though she was innocent. She also tells him that Rama killed their brothers along with 14,000 demon soldiers. She wants Ravana to take revenge for her.

7. Maricha

The Description:

So Ravana asks the demon Maricha to disguise himself as a golden deer to distract Rama and Lakshmana so that he can kidnap Sita. On Ravana's adamant instructions, Maricha reluctantly transforms himself into a lovely golden deer.

8. The Golden Deer

The Description:

The deer (maricha) pranced merrily towards the hut where Rama, Sita and Lakshmana lived. Spotting the animal in a bush, Sita requests Rama to bring her the deer and he sets out in search of it. Rama follows the deer which leads him far away from their hut.

9. Lakshmanarekha

The Description:

Sita gets worried about Rama and asks Lakshmana to go look for him. Even after reassuring Rama's safety, Sita insists on Lakshmana looking out for Rama. So, with no option left Lakshmana draws the Lakshmanarekha. He then asks Sita to stay inside the circle and not to cross it under any circumstances.

10. A sage comes begging for food

The Description:

As Lakshmana leaves and a sage comes to the hut asking for alms. Mentioning that her husband and brother-in-law are away, Sita asks the sage to wait. To which the sage says that he is hungry and is in desperate need of food.

11. Sita's crosses Lakshmanrekha

The Description:

Feeling sad for the hungry sage, Sita brings some food for him. She forgets about what Lakshmana says about the circle 'Lakshmanrekha' and crosses it to give him the food.

12. Sita's Abduction

The Description:

The moment Sita steps outside the circle, the sage transforms back into Ravana.

He claims to be Ravana and asks Sita to be his wife and the queen.

Sita turns furious and tells Ravana that he will be punished for his arrogance because she is the wife of Rama.

This enrages Ravana, he drags Sita into his chariot and flies away towards Lanka.
